WALTER J. TRAVIS ASKED TO REFEREE BIG MATCH

Walter J. Travis, the veteran golfer, has geen asked to officiate as referee in the Hagen and Mitchell match on Tuesday next at the Westchester - Biltmore Country Club. The former British amateur champion has not given his decision yet. Travis was responsible for lasting out the long course, which is an ideal test for a match of this kind. With the back tees 6,700 yards will be avallable.

Hagen is regarded as the best match player in America, while Mitchell has the same honor abroad. In fact Mitchell has never been beaten in match play with the single exception of when he was an amateur and lost to Johnny Ball at Hoylake in the amateur championship. Mitchell is the longest driver among the pros, many believe, but Hagen, his admirers say, will not be far behind him. Thirty-six holes will be used instead of seventy-two, as originally planned.

Abductor Caught With Victim in Marriage License Bureau Pleads She Ignored Advances.

Calmly maintaining that he had only followed a cave-man custom of is people, Raiph Sabbio, twenty-one, well-to-do and living at No. 8617 Seventh Avenue, was arrested by detectives, who awaited his appearance at the Marriage License Bureau in Brooklyn to-day on a charge of abducting Tessie De Fino, nineteen and handsome, and holding her over night so that she would feel compelled to become his bride.

Sabbio explained that he had known $ ressie by sight for three years and ad long been madly in love with her, but though he had raised his hat to her many times and in various ways had tried to make her acquaintance, she had never deigned to notice him. Therefore, in desperation, he adopted a last resort method long actised in Italy of so compromising ie young woman that she must marry him. The crime with which Sabbio is harged is punishable by death in any States. In this State it carries penalty of twenty years. Miss De Fino is the daughter of a
